

USEFUL WEBSITES – SCOTLAND

*www.scotlandspeople.gov.uk

For Testaments, Wills and Inventories (free index, £5.00 fee for document)

E.G. Stewart Peter 18/8/1852 accountant, residing in Glasgow, spouse is Elizabeth Christie, daughter of Duncan Christie Glasgow Sheriff Court Wills

Stewart Peter 18/8/1852 accountant, residing at Castlemilk Place, Hutchesontown, spouse of Elizabeth Christie or Stewart Glasgow Sheriff Court Inventories

For Births, Marriages and Deaths – Civil Registration (fee based) (Birth records 1855 – 1905; marriage records 1855 – 1930 and deaths 1855 – 1955)
[2006]

For Births, Marriages and Deaths - Old Parish Registers 1553 - 1854 (fee based) (Index only at present – links to OPR's soon)

For 1841, 1851, 1861, 1871, 1881, 1891 and 1901 census returns (fee based)

£6.00 buys 30 page credits, valid for a pre-determined time period. A page of an index of up to 25 names is 1 credit, the image of a record is 5 credits....

*<http://www.commentonline.co.uk/sub-history/breadalbane/BreadalbaneSurnames.htm>

Many Breadalbane articles, including the list of Breadalbane Surnames from the book “In Famed Breadalbane” by Rev. William A. Gillies.

*www.familysearch.org

For International Genealogical Index [IGI], which contains extracts of Parish Registers, etc. (NOTE: some Male baptisms are missing for Scotland)

For Library index for ordering microfilms of various records – census, Parish Registers, etc.

Don't forget our own local Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Family History Centre located on Rossland Road in Oshawa. In addition to the IGI and what is available through the catalogue, they have birth, marriage and death indexes for Scotland and the Old Parish Registers transcription project (OPR) on hand.

*www.nas.gov.uk

National Archives of Scotland website – searchable by surname and / or location

E.G. Papers of the Campbell Family, Earls of Breadalbane (Breadalbane Muniments)
Petitions from Tenants and Others

CountryCode GB RepCode 234 Repository National Archives of Scotland Reference GD112/11/3/2/24 Title

Two letters from Alexander MacNab, Inishewen, to Mr Kennedy, Taymouth.

Details of disaster suffered by relict of Gilbert Christie, tenant in Ledchary, who was swept away and killed with six of their children, and all the cows, in the thaw last winter; wishes payment of rent to be delayed; 'if you think it proper not to decree her till his lordship comes home it will be gaining the blessing of one of Jobs daughters' Date 7-15 Jul 1794 Extent 2 items AccessStatus Open PlaceName(plans) /Scotland

*<http://freecen.rootsweb.com>

For Free census indexes (a work in progress) [see Argyll Parishes 1841 for a good example of what is coming]

*<http://www.nls.uk/digitallibrary/map/index.html>

Scotland Maps (see 1778 Breadalbane Map for a good example)

*<http://www.sctbdm.com/>

Free birth, marriage, and death record transcriptions exchange (a work in progress)

*www.genuki.org.uk GENUKI (Genealogy – UK)

*<http://edina.ac.uk/statacc> The Statistical Accounts of Scotland
A detailed look at life in each of the 938 Scottish Parishes, 1790's and 1830's and 40's.
(originally free – might be a charge now????)

*www.scotsgenealogy.com Scottish Genealogy Society

*www.hometown.aol.co.uk/Genealogyscot/Page80.html David Stuart's Scottish 1851 Database Index. Over 64,000 names from the 1851 census have been arranged alphabetically by surname; free to browse, search and view results

*www.mlfhs.org.uk Scottish Strays Marriage Index. The Anglo-Scottish Family History Society index is free of charge at the ASFHS's parent society, the Manchester and Lancashire FHS.

Soldier's Discharge papers cagtalogue.pro.gov.uk Free search of index 1760 – 1913 of soldiers discharged to pension; copies of actual pension records online at www.pro.gov.uk for a minimum charge of £10.00

SCAN (Scottish Archive Network) is currently in the early stages of a 5 – 7 year project to digitize the records of the kirk sessions, which are held by the National Archives of Scotland. In addition, SCAN is digitizing the 19th century poor relief registers and hopes to digitize the NAS's collection of sasines (land records dating back to 1599) and taxation records.

*www.lyon-court.com The Court of the Lord Lyon King of Arms Is digitizing its Public Register of all Arms and Bearings in Scotland. Expected to be online by 2006/2007 and will form part of the resources of Scotland's People website.

*<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~relys4u> Relative Finder website

Parts of the 1841 census by Terry Sheppard of NZ.

*www.ayrshireancestors.co.uk Ayrshire Ancestors site

Search indexes to the 1851 and 1861 censuses for the County. For the full census returns, you must buy a CD for 1851 or 1861 from the East Ayrshire Family History Society.

(www.eastayrshirefhs.org.uk)

[see also Ayrshire Roots for downloads of every 50th enumeration book, available for 26 of the 33 historic Scottish Counties (as well as 39 English and 12 Welsh Counties and County Antrim in Ireland)]

*<http://fp.ayrshireroots.plus.com/Genealogy/Records/Census/1851/1851.htm>

*www.scotsfind.org ScotsFind

Marriage Registers and other databases.